

Newvista Internet
Data Handling Policy
1st January 2022

1. Introduction

This Policy is a supporting document to the Data Protection Policy of Newvista Internet, whose address is at Office 95543, PO Box 15113, Birmingham, B2 2NJ (“the Company”) regarding data protection and the rights of staff, customers, the customers or our customers when acting as a Data Processor for our customer’s data (the Data Controller) and business contacts.

This Policy sets out rules and guidance for all employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company regarding the handling of personal data.

2. Definitions

- “consent” means the consent of the data subject which must be a freely given, specific, informed, and unambiguous indication of the data subject’s wishes by which they (by a statement or by a clear affirmative action) signify their agreement to the processing of personal data relating to them;
- “Data Protection Legislation” means all applicable data protection and privacy laws including, but not limited to, the retained EU law version of the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (the “UK GDPR”), as it forms part of the law of England and Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland by virtue of section 3 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, the Data Protection Act 2018, the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 as amended, and any successor legislation;
- “data subject” means a living, identified, or identifiable individual about whom the Company holds personal data;
- “personal data” means any information relating to a data subject who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, identification number, location data, an online identifier, or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural, or social identity of that data subject. Unless otherwise stated, references in this Policy to “personal data”

shall also include special category personal data;

“personal data breach”

means a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored, or otherwise processed;

“processing”

means any operation or set of operations performed on personal data or sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction;

“special category personal data”

means personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health, sexual life, sexual orientation, biometric, or genetic data.

3. Data Protection Officer & Scope of Policy

- 3.1. The Company's Data Protection Officer is Guy Newell, Office 95543, PO Box 15113, Birmingham, B2 2NJ, email info@newvista.co.uk. The Data Protection Officer is responsible for administering this Policy and for developing and implementing any applicable related policies, procedures, and/or guidelines.
- 3.2. All managers are responsible for ensuring that all employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company comply with this Policy and, where applicable, must implement such practices, processes, controls, and training as are reasonably necessary to ensure such compliance.
- 3.3. Any questions relating to this Policy, the Company's collection, processing, or holding of personal data, or to the Data Protection Legislation should be referred to the Data Protection Officer.

4. Data Protection

- 4.1. The Company collects and processes the personal data set out in the Data Protection Policy and Data Retention Policy.
- 4.2. The Company only collects, processes, and holds personal data for the specific purposes set out in the Data Protection Policy (or for other purposes expressly permitted by the Data Protection Legislation).
- 4.3. The Company will only collect and process personal data for and to the extent necessary for the specific purpose or purposes of which data subjects have been informed (or will be informed).
- 4.4. Employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company may collect personal data only to the extent required for the performance of their job duties and only in accordance with this Policy and the Company's Data Protection Policy. Excessive personal data must not be collected.

- 4.5. Employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company may process personal data only when the performance of their job duties requires it. Personal data held by the Company cannot be processed for any unrelated reasons.
- 4.6. The Company shall ensure that all personal data collected, processed, and held by it is kept accurate and up-to-date. This includes, but is not limited to, the rectification of personal data at the request of a data subject.
- 4.7. If any personal data is found to be inaccurate or out-of-date, all reasonable steps will be taken without delay to amend or erase that data, as appropriate.
- 4.8. The Company shall not keep personal data for any longer than is necessary in light of the purpose or purposes for which that personal data was originally collected, held, and processed.
- 4.9. When personal data is no longer required, all reasonable steps will be taken to erase or otherwise dispose of it without delay.
- 4.10. For full details of the Company's approach to data retention, including retention periods for specific personal data types held by the Company, please refer to our Data Retention Policy.

5. Data Security

- 5.1. The Company shall ensure that all personal data collected, held, and processed is kept secure and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage. Further details of the technical and organisational measures which shall be taken are set out below in Part 6.
- 5.2. Data security must be maintained at all times by protecting the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of all personal data as follows:
 - 5.2.1 only those with a genuine need to access and use personal data and who are authorised to do so may access and use it;
 - 5.2.2 personal data must be accurate and suitable for the purpose or purposes for which it is collected, held, and processed; and
 - 5.2.3 authorised users must always be able to access the personal data as required for the authorised purpose or purposes.

6. Data Handling

- 6.1. All personal data must be handled in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Legislation, the Company's Data Protection Policy, and other related policies.
- 6.2. Special category personal data is never transmitted by email;
- 6.3. Personal data may be transmitted over secure networks only; transmission over unsecured networks is not permitted in any circumstances.
- 6.4. Personal data may not be transmitted over a wireless network if there is a wired alternative that is reasonably practicable.
- 6.5. Personal data contained in the body of an email, whether sent or received, should be copied from the body of that email and stored securely. The email itself should be stored with the personal data information deleted. All temporary files associated therewith should also be deleted.
- 6.6. Where personal data is to be sent by facsimile transmission the recipient should be informed in advance of the transmission and should be waiting by the fax machine to receive the data.
- 6.7. Where personal data is to be transferred in hardcopy form it should be passed directly to the recipient.
- 6.8. All personal data to be transferred physically, whether in hardcopy form or on removable electronic media shall be transferred in a suitable container marked "confidential".
- 6.9. All electronic copies of personal data should be stored securely using passwords and using the OpenPGP standard (gnuPG) as defined by RFC4880 data encryption.
- 6.10. All hardcopies of personal data, along with any electronic copies stored on physical, removable media should be stored securely in a locked box, drawer, cabinet, or similar.

- 6.11. All personal data stored electronically should be backed up at least weekly with backups stored onsite AND/OR offsite. All backups should be encrypted using the OpenPGP standard (gnuPG) as defined by RFC4880.
- 6.12. When any personal data is to be erased or otherwise disposed of for any reason (including where copies have been made and are no longer needed), it should be securely deleted and disposed of. For further information on the deletion and disposal of personal data, please refer to the Company's Data Retention Policy.
- 6.13. No personal data should be stored on any mobile device (including, but not limited to, laptops, tablets, and smartphones), whether such device belongs to the Company or otherwise without the formal written approval of the Data Protection Officer and, in the event of such approval, strictly in accordance with all instructions and limitations described at the time the approval is given, and for no longer than is absolutely necessary.
- 6.14. No personal data should be transferred to any computer or device personally belonging to an employee, agent, contractor, or other party working on behalf of the Company and personal data may only be transferred to devices belonging to agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company where the party in question has agreed to comply fully with the letter and spirit of this Policy and of the Data Protection Legislation (which may include demonstrating to the Company that all suitable technical and organisational measures have been taken).
- 6.15. No personal data may be shared informally and if an employee, agent, contractor, or other party working on behalf of the Company requires access to any personal data that they do not already have access to, such access should be formally requested from Data Protection Officer.
- 6.16. No personal data may be shared with or transferred to any employee, agent, contractor, or other party, whether such parties are working on behalf of the Company or not, without the authorisation of the Data Protection Officer and only then if the sharing or transfer is secure, lawful, and fair. Personal data shared with third parties must be covered by a suitable written agreement to ensure compliance with the Data Protection Legislation.
- 6.17. Personal data must be handled with care at all times and should not be left unattended or on view to unauthorised employees, agents, contractors, or other parties at any time.
- 6.18. If personal data is being viewed on a computer screen and the computer in question is to be left unattended for any period of time, the user must lock the computer and screen before leaving it.
- 6.19. Where personal data held by the Company is used for marketing purposes, it shall be the responsibility of the Data Protection Officer to ensure that the appropriate consent is obtained and that no data subjects have opted out, whether directly or via a third-party service such as the TPS.
- 6.20. All passwords used to protect personal data should be changed regularly and should not use words or phrases that can be easily guessed or otherwise compromised. All passwords must contain a random phrase of at least five words. The phrase should also be made up of upper and lower case letters, numbers, spaces and symbols;
- 6.21. Under no circumstances should any passwords be written down or shared between any employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company, irrespective of seniority or department. If a password is forgotten, it must be reset using the applicable method. IT staff do not have access to passwords.

- 6.22. Under no circumstances should any passwords relating to Company systems and/or personal data be saved on any computer or device that is not Company-owned. This includes saving passwords in internet browsers and in third-party password manager applications.
- 6.23. Under no circumstances should any computer or device used for accessing or handling personal data be used without the correct security functions enabled including, as appropriate, passwords, PIN codes, biometric security (e.g. fingerprint), and any additional security software provided by the Company.
- 6.24. All software (including, but not limited to, applications and operating systems) shall be kept up-to-date. The Company's IT staff shall be responsible for installing any and all security-related updates as soon as reasonably and practically possible, unless there are valid technical reasons not to do so.
- 6.25. No software may be installed on any Company-owned computer or device without the prior approval of the Guy Newell.
- 6.26. If any computer or device used to access or store personal data, whether personal or Company-owned, is lost or stolen, the loss or theft must be reported to the Data Protection Officer as soon as possible, and all assistance required provided with any investigation.
- 6.27. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company shall be made fully aware of both their individual responsibilities and the Company's responsibilities under the Data Protection Legislation and under all applicable Company policies, including (but not limited to) this Policy and the Data Protection Policy.
- 6.28. Only employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company that need access to, and use of, personal data in order to carry out their assigned duties correctly shall have access to personal data held by the Company.
- 6.29. All sharing of personal data shall comply with the information provided to the relevant data subjects and, if required, the consent of such data subjects shall be obtained prior to the sharing of their personal data.
- 6.30. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be appropriately trained to do so.
- 6.31. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be appropriately supervised.
- 6.32. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data shall be required and encouraged to exercise care, caution, and discretion when discussing work-related matters that relate to personal data, whether in the workplace or otherwise.
- 6.33. Methods of collecting, holding, and processing personal data shall be regularly evaluated and reviewed.
- 6.34. All personal data held by the Company shall be reviewed periodically, as set out in the Company's Data Retention Policy.
- 6.35. The performance of those employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data shall be regularly evaluated and reviewed.

- 6.36. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data will be bound to do so in accordance with the principles of the Data Protection Legislation and this Policy by contract.
- 6.37. All agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company handling personal data must ensure that any and all of their employees who are involved in the processing of personal data are held to the same conditions as those relevant employees of the Company arising out of this Policy and the Data Protection Legislation.
- 6.38. Where any agent, contractor or other party working on behalf of the Company handling personal data fails in their obligations under this Policy that party shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company against any costs, liability, damages, loss, claims or proceedings which may arise out of that failure.

7. Accountability and Record-Keeping

- 7.1. The Data Protection Officer is responsible for administering this Policy and for developing and implementing all applicable related policies, procedures, and/or guidelines.
- 7.2. The Company shall follow a privacy by design approach at all times when collecting, holding, and processing personal data. Data Protection Impact Assessments shall be conducted if any processing presents a significant risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects.
- 7.3. All employees, agents, contractors, or other parties working on behalf of the Company shall be given appropriate training in data protection and privacy, addressing the relevant aspects of the Data Protection Legislation, this Policy, the Company's Data Protection Policy, and all other applicable Company policies.
- 7.4. The Company's data protection compliance shall be regularly reviewed and evaluated by means of Data Protection Audits.
- 7.5. The Company shall keep written internal records of all personal data collection, holding, and processing.
